Valin Corporation Becomes Authorized Distributor for ASCO Numatics

Valin now largest ASCO distributor in Western United States

San Jose, Calif. (March 24, 2015)— Valin Corporation, a leading provider of process control and automation solutions to the technology, energy, life sciences, natural resources and transportation markets, announces it is now an authorized distributor for the complete ASCO Numatics line of products. The development makes Valin the largest stocking distributor of ASCO Numatics in the western United States.

“We’re happy to announce we are now an authorized distributor of the ASCO line,” said Joseph Nettemeyer, President and CEO of Valin Corporation. “This partnership combines the two largest market innovative leaders in manufacturing and distribution of fluid control system solutions. We look forward to a long, prosperous relationship.”

ASCO Numatics products offer comprehensive fluid automation solutions for a wide range of industry-focused applications. The company’s product line includes more than 50,000 solenoid valves and a comprehensive set of position indicators. ASCO Numatics products and technologies have applications in the life sciences, power generation, biofuels, food and beverage, air ride suspension, petroleum and chemical, water and wastewater, pulp and paper, packaging, commercial appliance and HVAC.
